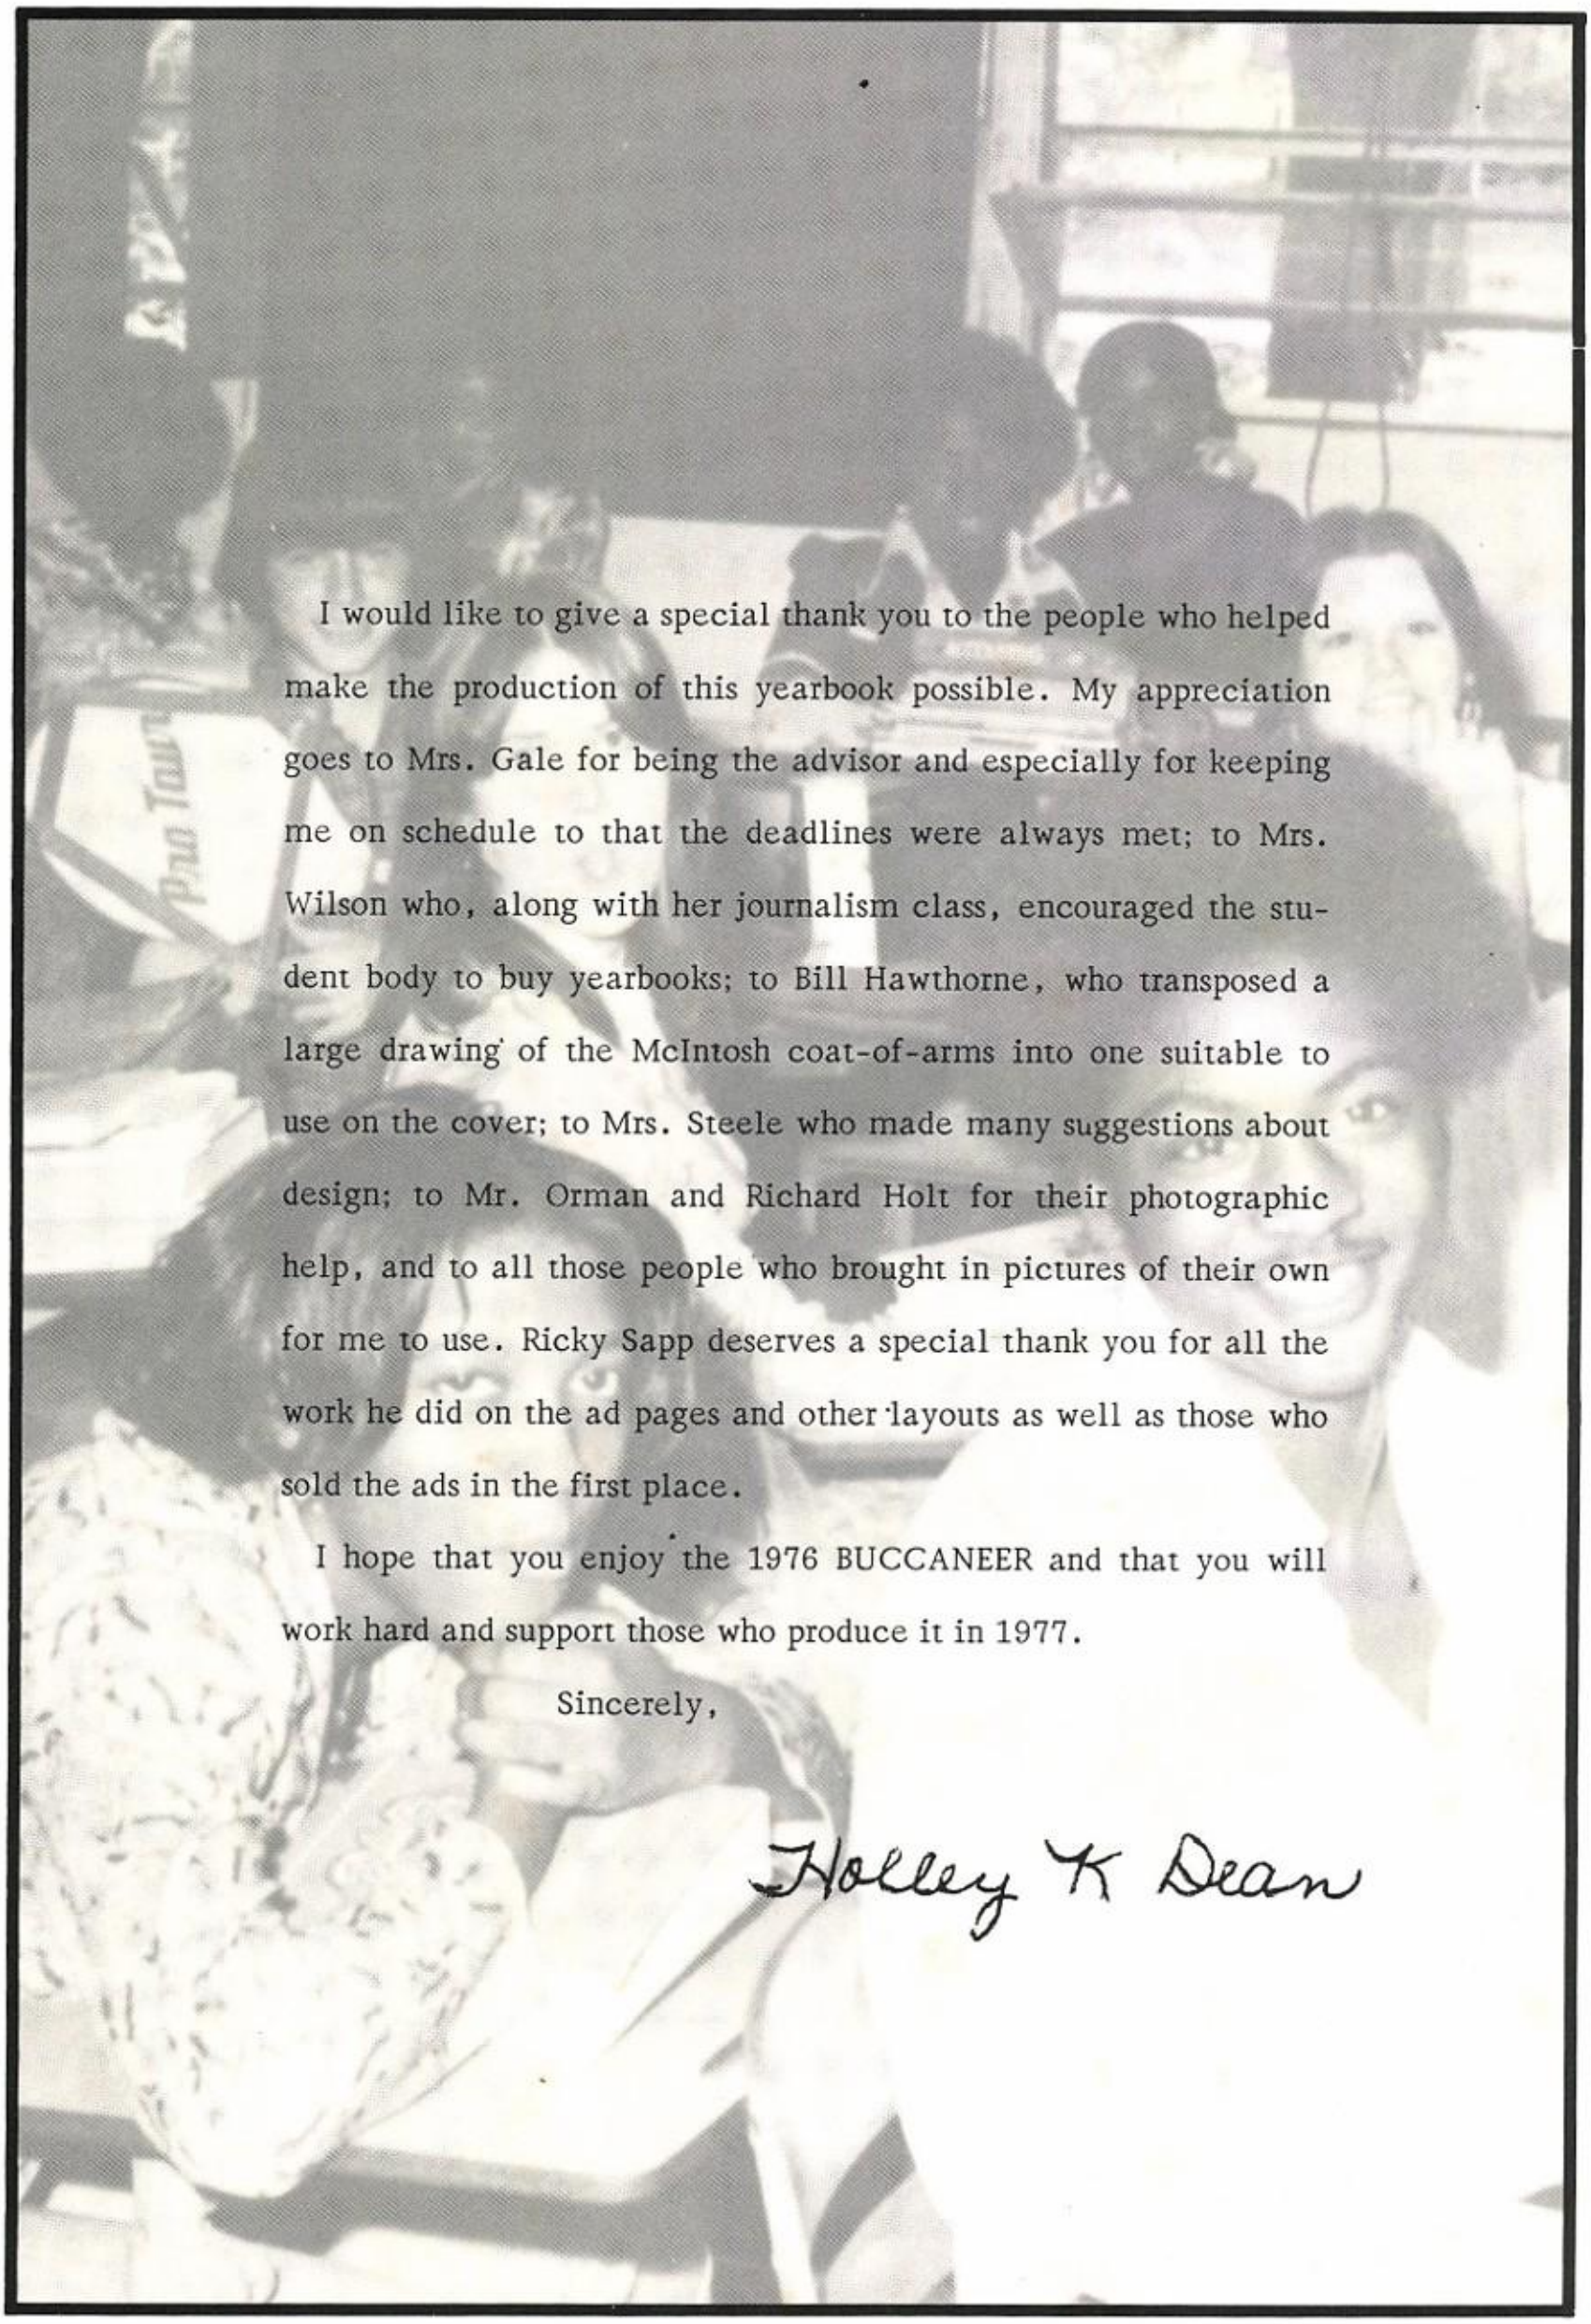
Holley Dean, Editor
Mrs. Shirley Gale, Advisor



I would like to give a special thank you to the people who helped make the production of this yearbook possible. My appreciation goes to Mrs. Gale for being the advisor and especially for keeping me on schedule to that the deadlines were always met; to Mrs. Wilson who, along with her journalism class, encouraged the student body to buy yearbooks; to Bill Hawthorne, who transposed a large drawing of the McIntosh coat-of-arms into one suitable to use on the cover; to Mrs. Steele who made many suggestions about design; to Mr. Orman and Richard Holt for their photographic help, and to all those people who brought in pictures of their own for me to use. Ricky Sapp deserves a special thank you for all the work he did on the ad pages and other layouts as well as those who sold the ads in the first place.

I hope that you enjoy the 1976 BUCCANEER and that you will work hard and support those who produce it in 1977.

Sincerely,

Holley K Dean

ADMINISTRATION FACULTY AND STAFF

STUDENTS AND TEACHERS OF McINTOSH ACADEMY:

As we approach the end of another school year, let us pause and look back at our accomplishments and, yes, failures for this school term.

Congratulations are in order to the Annual Staff for another outstanding yearbook. Your efforts have been untiring in your attempt to make this the best possible edition.

This year has seen new courses at MCA: the Journalism Class and the ECHO, the Dramatics Class, and the Creative Writing Class. The art program has contributed to the attractiveness of the whole school as well as benefited the individual students.

We do have areas where improvement is needed: the Student Council should become more active and influential, clubs should take a look at themselves and examine their goals and purposes, and teachers and students should inspect their ideas about the real meaning of education.

We have made great progress, but the search for knowledge is a neverending one, and we cannot afford to become complacent. Now is the time to begin working for a better school.

WHAT IS A SENIOR?

(1) A senior is an individual who respects the things she wants to accomplish in life and tries to improve as life goes on.

Carol Jones

(2) A senior has spent years studying and all of a sudden she is caught up in a whirlwind of prom, last-minute tests, marching practice, and finally faced with a big decision: What am I going to do?

Jackie Waller

(3) Being a senior means getting away with a lot more than when you were a junior.

Brenda Elkins

(4) A senior is a person with a special goal in life . . . a person who sometimes feels that she is all alone . . . a person who is on top of the world.

Charlotte Bryant

(5) A senior is a person on top for a year and about to graduate and be dropped to the bottom of the heap.

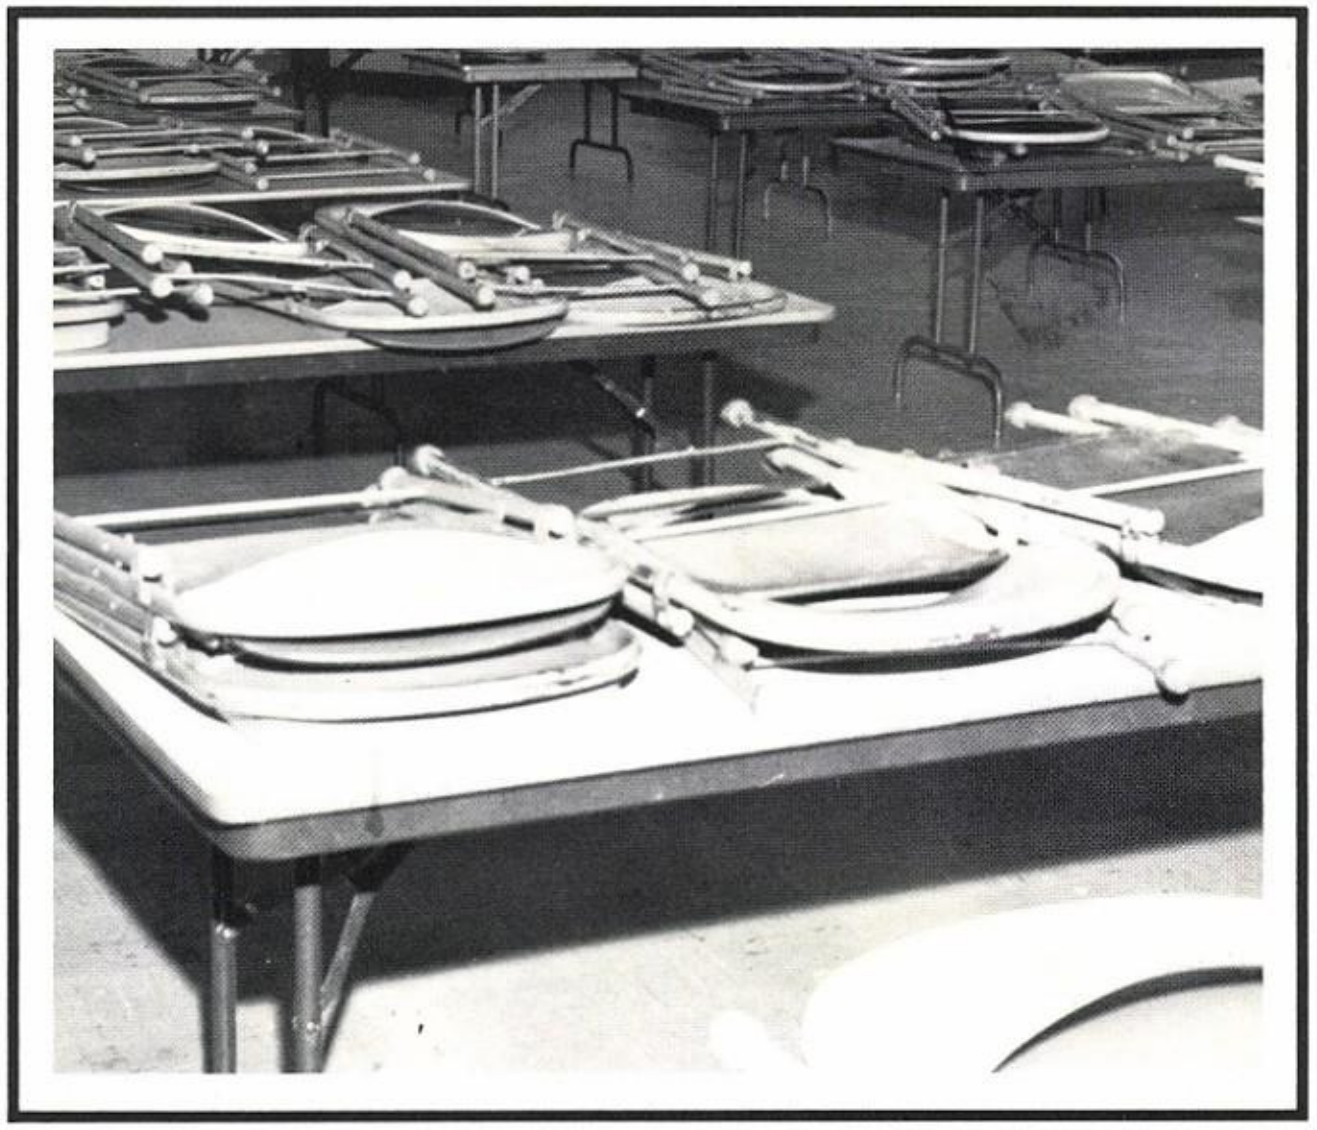
REFLECTIONS



Our senior year has come and gone. Throughout these past years we have undergone many changes and experiences. We have learned from our mistakes and failures. We have begun to grow as individuals. The year is now no more than memories.

Our freshman year was one of bewilderment and insecurity. We learned to face new problems and to form our own ideas, principles, and directions in life. We joined clubs and athletics and began to have a voice in school activities. It was a beginning, but we still remember how we felt whenever we came in contact with the "aloof and superior" seniors.

Autumn of 1973 brought us together as sophomores. Our confidence had begun to develop. Roots of friendship were growing deeper. We participated more in athletics, clubs, dances, etc. There is reflection over tears about going steady, breaking up, and friendship rings. We cannot forget the seemingly endless waiting in the lunch line and the spirit of aggression in the line.

Summer passed too quickly and the junior year arrived. We felt a surge of confidence. We ordered class rings for that special year and got our driver's licenses which enabled us to cruise the town. We had a school prom again and now that the year closes, we realize that we are turning into seniors faster than we had anticipated.

At last we have reached the pinnacle; we are seniors. Scholastics take on a deeper meaning to some of us. For the first time we are really aware of the problems in society that one day we must solve. We are living in a time of sunshine and shadows. We have felt the anguish of disharmony in division over the prom. We have had the pride of producing a successful school newspaper. We have had a taste of honey in senior privileges. Invitations were ordered and senior pictures were made. Term papers gave us headaches and there was practice, practice, practice, for our very special exercises. June 4, 1976, marked the day of Commencement for the largest graduating class in the history of McIntosh County Academy.

God bless you everyone and may your dreams of the future find fulfillment. May your reflections of the past four years have a happy place in your hearts as we step forward to take another new beginning from this day.

WE SHALL NEVER PASS
THIS WAY AGAIN

Sex, Pills, Money, and Wine. We're the class of
